DIAMOND SPECTACLES.
TRADE MARK
These Spectacles are manufactured from "MINUTE CRYSTAL PEBBLES" melted together, and are called DIAMOND on account of their hardness and brilliancy. It is well known that spectacles cut from Brazilian or Scotch pebbles are very injurious to the eye, because of their polarizing light. Having been tested with the polariscope, the diamond lenses have been found to admit fifteen per cent. less heated rays than any other pebble. They are ground with great scientific accuracy, are free from chromatic aberrations, and produce a brightness and distinctness of vision not before attained in spectacles.
Manufactured by The Spencer Optical Manufacturing Company, New York. For sale by responsible agents in every city in the Union. H. A. HEATH, & CO., Jewelers and Opticians, are Sole Agents for Newport, R. I. From whom they can only be obtained. No peddlers employed. Do not buy any unless you see the trade mark.

The Blue Laws of Virginia.

To the Editor of the New York Evening Post:

I have a small and choice collection of works in reference to the early colonial history of our country, and, having thought that some selections from them would prove interesting to your readers, I have attempted an occasional summary of extracts. This evening, if agreeable to you, we will turn our eyes toward the "Old Dominion." Virginia was so styled because, during the protectorate of Cromell, something like an attempt was made to invite Charles II., it is said, then a refugee, to establish an independent dominion within her territory. Many of the so-called "blue laws" of Virginia are, in their way, as laughable as those of any other of the colonial governments. We may well wonder if posterity will laugh at us in future time, 200 years from now, as we love in the present generation to poke fun at our ancestors, or rather, as I should say, at our neighbors' ancestors.

Well, the "blue laws" of Virginia—these are a few extracts:

In 1610, attendance at church twice every Sunday was enjoined "upon pain, for the first fault, to lose their provision and allowance for the whole week following; for the second, to lose said allowance, and also to be whipped; and for the third, to suffer death." The law was subsequently modified as follows, the Governor publishing several edicts: "That every person should go to church Sundays and holidays, or lie neck and heels that night, and be a slave to the colony the following week; for the second offence he should be a slave for a month; for the third, a year and a day."

I do wish we had such a funny law in our time. It would make the lazy folks get up early in the morning on a Sunday.

1662.—"Every person who refuses to have his child baptized by a lawful minister [of the Church of England] shall be amerced 2,000 lbs. of tobacco. The whole liturgy of the Church of England shall be thoroughly read at church or chapel every Sunday."

1663.—"If any Quakers or other separatists whatsoever in this colony assemble themselves together, to the number of five or more, of the age of 16 years or upwards, under the pretence of joining in a religious worship not authorized in England or this country, the parties so offending shall forfeit and pay for the first offence 200 pounds of tobacco; for the second offence, 500 pounds of tobacco, and for the third offence shall be banished the colony." Puritanical intolerance, indeed, Mr. Royalist!

They did not let people travel on Sundays in old Connecticut. They tell amusing stories about the Selectmen stopping people on the highways there, in ancient times. Well, they did nothing of the sort in Virginia! Of course not. Let us see:

1662.—"Enacted, That the Lord's day be kept holy, and no journeys be made on that day, unless upon necessity. And all persons inhabiting in the country, having no lawful excuse, shall every Sunday resort to the parish church or chapel," &c. Good; this was jolly. Again;

"The court in every county shall cause to be set up near the court house a pillory, a pair of stocks, a whipping-post, and a ducking-stool, in such place as they shall think convenient; which not being set up within six months after the date of this act, the said court shall be fined 5,000 pounds of tobacco!" Funny, decidely, but the funniest part of this is the ducking or cucking stool. This was a sort of a long beam or pole moving on a pivot at the middle, and having a seat fastened at the further end, wherein a scolding woman being placed, was conveniently let down and ducked in a pond or stream of water. This was a favorite pastime of the royalists in early days. I have never discovered that the Puritans practised it in New England. Not they. They were too straitlaced for any such amusements. And the method of punishing scolds was introduced into this city of New York by the royalist English—most ungallant fellows!—and not by the Dutch, and the practice prevailed here for a long period. We have a city ordinance decreeing that one be erected as early as 1692. The machine then stood on the wharf in front of the old Stadt Huys or City Hall in Coenties slip.

But one more and I have done.

1679.—"The first offence of hog stealing shall be punished according to the former law (to pay one thousand pounds of tobacco, and in case of inability, serve two years); upon a second conviction the offender shall stand two hours in the pillory and lose his ears; and for the third offence he shall be tried by the laws of England, as in case of felony."

Poor hog stealer! This was hard on him—a predicament truly laughable. So you see, Mr. Chivalry, what your ancestor did. Respectfully yours,

NEW ENGLANDER.

The official inquiry into the loss of the steamship Atlantic has opened at Liverpool. The investigation was mainly into the alleged insufficiency of provisions and coal. Mr. Ismay, of Ismay, Imrie & Co., the agents of the White Star Line, testified that the Atlantic had on board when she left Liverpool 933 tons of coal, and provisions for a voyage of thirty-two days, independent of the cabin store. He further testified that she had undergone all the necessary surveys regarding equipment and stores previous to her departure.

The 49th annual meeting of the New York Seaman's Friend Society was held Monday. The annual report shows that 744 libraries were sent to sea the past ear, making a total since the work was inaugurated of 4385, or 1,519,000 volumes. The expenditures of the year were $61,427.

THE LETTER BOXES.

We are glad to have the street letter boxes, for they are a great convenience to our people and are now indespensable; but we must respectfully suggest an improvement in their construction. The time advertised for the collections are 6 A. M.] and 6 P. M. but the collector seldom appears before a half hour, and many times nearly an hour after the time. A person having a letter that he desires to go by the next mail reaches the box after the time appointed, fears to take the risk of the letters having been gathered and goes on to the post office, a distance may be, of half a mile and, on his way back, meets the postman coming from the box and finds that his long walk has been for nothing. Now we think that, inasmuch as the boxes remain open after the time announced, the public should have the benefit of it. The front could be easily be so arranged with glass and iron open work that the contents could be seen from the outside, and a person thus know the exact state of the case.

We don't expect that the government will at once condemn the boxes now in use in all the cities but hope that our suggestions will have their due weight and that our own city will have the benefit of them.

THE MIXED COMMISSION.

The Commissioners of the United States and Great Britain appointed by the two Governments to settle outstanding claims are to meet in this city on the fifth day of June next. It will be remembered that two commissions were appointed at the close of the war, one to adjust the so called Alabama claims, and the other to hear and decide on other matters of disagreement between the two Governments, such as grew out of illegal arrests, the enforcement of the blockade, detention and capture of ships and whatever else may have occurred at which either country has taken offense.

The former commission met at Geneva, the latter at Washington, and now, at the earnest request of the members who have an eye to comfort as well as diplomacy, is to meet at Newport. No greater compliment could be paid to our city than the selection thus made, especially as some of the members are familiar with our climate and our society.

The commission consists of Russel Gurney, M. P., on the part of Great Britain, with Mr. Howland as agent and Mr. Carlysle as counsel. Judge Frazier of Indiana represents the United States with Mr. Hale of Washington as agent and counsel.—Count Corti the Italian minister is the third member having been agreed upon by the two Governments.

The commission will have its office in the house of Dr. David King near the Club House where the business will be transacted.

STATE MISCELLANY.

Greenville has taken measures to assist the proposed branch of the Providence and Springfield railroad.

Next Saturday, May 17th, is the forty-fifth anniversary of the formation of the "Coventry Union Temperance Society," and the members have thought that it might add something to the cause of temperance to hold a reunion meeting on that day, as it will give pleasure to meet old friends, renew the past, realize the present, and prepare and hope for the future. With these views and feelings, such a meeting has been called in the hall, in Anthony Village Coventry, on the 17th, at 2 o'clock.

Monday afternoon a man crossing the bridge over the Woonasquatucket river, at Merino, lost a coat overboard with seventeen dollars in money in it. He went into the river after it, but the current was so strong it swept him down stream, and but for the timely assistance of a young man named John Ryan, who rushed in and rescued him from his peril, he might have lost both his money and his life.

The fourth anniversary of the First Light Infantry Veteran Association was observed at the Infantry Armory Providence, Monday evening, by about one hundred and fifty of its members.

Work has been begun on the new French Catholic church in Woonsocket.

The Providence Herald is responsible for the following: During one of the recent exhibitions of Barnum's menagerie in this city, a young husband, the happy father of a chubby, rosy cheeked baby, was wandering about the concern, and after a while neared the vicinity of the "Wild Figi Cannibals." Holding the aforesaid offspring in his arms, he stopped to view these feeders on human flesh. Mr. Male Fiji accosted the papa thusly: "Fattee baby; white man; good eat; tender, Fiji man like him. How muchee price? Fiji man pay Melikee man dollars." The horrified father drew back aghast, but hastily responded in this wise; "What will you give, noble savage?" Fiji man give ten dollars." "Too cheap; worth more; but I'll tell you what I'll do. I've got a nice old mother-in-law at home I'll sell you for five dollars; she's rather tough eating, but good for a square meal."

The Acting Secretary of War, on Saturday afternoon last, received a telegram from Thomas Fitzpatrick, in New York, to the effect that he had applied to the Government, through the New York Herald of the 6th instant, to exterminate the Modocs, and that now veterans of the Sixty-ninth regiment and volunteers were ready, and even anxious, to advance at once, and asking a favorable reply, which was anxiously waited for by the patriotic boys. The Government has no need of volunteers, at least from this part of the country, although it is very patriotic in Thomas and his veteran followers to offer their services.

NEW ENGLAND NOTES.

The Potomska Mill, New Bedford, has its machinery in place, and it will soon be in operation. There are now 774 looms running, and last week there was turned out 4079 pieces of cloth. And what is better still, the goods find quick sale and at the best price. In less than two years, a second mill will be up.

A number of gentlemen from New Bedford have visited Fitchburg relative to the proposed removal of the Haskins Machine and Engine Works to the former city, and the enlargement of the same for a more extended business. They were much pleased with the appearance of the works, and the prospect for business, and we trust that negotiations may be consummated which will add this branch of industry to our city.

It requires forty men and sixty horses to transfer passengers, baggage and freight on the Maine Central at Fairfield.

The Maine Whig, states that the mills at Oldtown and Milford, with the exception of a gang and three single saws, will not run this summer. The high price of logs is assigned as the cause.

The limb of the tree from which the murderer Dullen was hanged, and also the rope by which he was suspended, have been secured by a travelling salesman of a Boston firm, and will be deposited among the curiosities of the Boston Museum.

One hundred and forty-eight mechanics and laborers were added to the working force in the Construction Department of the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Friday.

Dover, N. H., is two hundred and fifty years old, and contains five hundred and two houses. There were two years when they built three houses per year, which explains the odd numerals.

The Lewiston, Me., Journal says the story going the rounds of the newspapers about a Jersey widow owning a right of dower in Squirrel Island, is all moonshine, and may as well be stopped. The title of the Squirrel Island Association to their property is perfect, and owners of shares need give themselves no uneasiness.

An elegant pleasure yacht, ninety seven feet long, seventeen and a half feet beam, and furnished in superb style, is building at New York for J. G. Witherbee of Port Henry, and will ply the waters of Lake Champlain, this summer.

A panther, or some other large animal of that species, was reported to have been seen about a mile and a half north of the village of Hardwick, Vt., on Friday last, by C. A. Cook. The scarcity of suitable guns and heroic sportsmen have thus far prevented any pursuit.

Preston Merrifield of Windsor, Vt., has a very rare copy of an old Family Bible, printed by subscription in London, at least two hundred years ago. It is a huge folio, with an immense explanatory of the sacred text. The original price, we believe, was forty pounds sterling—nearly two hundred dollars.

There is a movement on foot for the establishment of a station for signalling the decrees of "Old Probabilities" from the top of Mount Holyoke, Mass., for the benefit of the large number of farmers and others in sight of the Prospect House. A large white flag will probably be displayed to indicate the prospect of fair weather and a black flag to tell that a storm is brewing.

One hundred men and three locomotives are employed ballasting that section of the Air Line Railroad between Middletown, Ct., and Easthampton. They hope to have it ready for regular trains within ten days.

The woods between North and South Manchester, Ct., are on fire, having caught from the sparks of a passing locomotive on the Hartford, Providence & Fishkill Railroad. The fire is burning quite briskly, and considerable damage is probable.

There is the highest authority for the statement that no foundation exists for the published statement that the President will probably convene Congress for the purpose of further legislation on Louisiana affairs. The President will sustain the Kellogg government to the end of its term, unless in the meantime the Supreme Court shall reverse the decisions of Judge Durell, which is not probable. The latest news from Louisiana seems to encourage the belief that the whole difficulty will be speedily settled.

—We called upon Mr. J. R. Murphy last evening who is the husband of the lady to whom it is supposed the trunks, alluded to in the News of yesterday, belonged and which were picked up from the wreck of the ill-fated Atlantic. He informs us that without doubt, the trunks belonged to his wife, as she had been in Europe previous, visiting her parents. She was accompanied on her departure from this city, by her two children, but it is presumed by Mr. M. that she left them with her parents in Ireland, as her relations to her husband were not as pleasant as they should have been. In the meantime every effort will be used by Mr. John Brown, the agent of the White Star Line in this city, to obtain beyond a doubt a full identification of the trunks and whether Mrs. Murphy or her children were on board at the time of the wreck.

PORTSMOUTH.

Ordination and Installation of Rev. George N. Morrill.

On Tuesday evening, the 13th instant, Rev. George N. Morrill was ordained and installed as pastor of the Christian Church. A large number of persons were present including a number of ministers besides those who took part on the occasion. After the organ voluntary, an anthem was sung by the choir. The invocation was offered by Rev. Samuel Adlam of Newport. Another hymn was sung and the scripture lesson read by Rev. N. S. Chadwick of Mansfield, Mass. The sermon was by Rev. O. A Roberts of New Bedford, from the text, Gen. 49.10. "Christ is the predicted Shiloh, to him shall all people be gathered," all who rely on the Lord Jesus Christ, trust in and love him and live in accordance with his life's teachings.—To be less than what is required by Christ is insufficient, to be more is not required.

It is important to come unto God by Christ, because this is the way that has been appointed by unerring wisdom. The sermon was earnest, eloquent and impressive and no report that we can give would do it justice. After the singing of another hymn the Prayer of Ordination was offered by Rev. W. S. Chadwick. Immediately following the prayer a responsive piece was very finely rendered by ladies of the choir. The charge to the pastor elect was delivered in an effective manner by Rev. I. H. Coe, of New Bedford. The Right Hand of Fellowship was given by Rev. B. T. Bachelor of New Bedford, in a hearty and loving address. One of the most interesting features of the exercises was the lively and, appropriate address to the people by Rev. S. N. Butler of Fall River. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. E Edmunds of Boston. The exercises were of a high order and of more than average interest and were attentively listened to throughout by the large congregation present.

THE INVESTIGATION.

Charges of the Narragansett Steamship Co. Mr. Pearce's Explanations. The Condition of the Harbor. The Painters' Strike.

The investigation of the charges made by the Narragansett Steamship Company against Mr. B. W. Pearce, the harbor master of this city, began last evening in the aldermen's room before a special committee of the city council consisting of Alderman Seabury, and Messrs. Weaver and Franklin of the common council. Mr. Seabury called the committee to order and read the charges made in behalf of the Company by Mr. Bacon, the Superintendent.

Mr. Brayton, the agent of the company, in this city, said he had expected to be relieved of the unpleasant duty of appearing against Mr. Pearce by Superintendent Bacon, but that gentleman was unfortunately in Washington. The harbor master business had been a great annoyance to him. He had been in the constant receipt of complaints from the management in New York, on this subject, for five years. After this thing had gone on some time, he had suggested to the management that some compensation be paid to Mr. Pearce in order to make him more attentive to the company's interests. The suggestion was adopted, and $200 a year was paid to Mr. Pearce.

On one occasion he was notified by the captain of the Bristol that two vessels lay in the channel in such positions, that in avoiding one a collision with the other was almost inevitable. He spoke to Mr. Pearce about it and the latter assured him there was plenty of room. The speaker told Mr. Pearce he should hold him responsible for any accident that occurred. The next time the Bristol came through the harbor she ran afoul of a vessel and took her jibboon out. In consequence of this Mr. Pearce's salary was stopped by the company.

After this, by authority of a special act, the city appointed a deputy harbor master, the company becoming responsible for his salary. Josiah K. Pitman was the first deputy appointed. This was in December 1869. Mr. Pitman served some time and was succeeded by Mr. King. The speaker's instructions to Mr. King were to co-operate with Mr. Pearce in a friendly spirit. In his conduct preceding this, Mr. Pearce had shown anything but a friendly spirit. After the appointment of the deputy the harbor master seemed to think that he had nothing to do with that part of the harbor except in some cases when he had countermanded the orders of the deputy, and told captains to lie still when the latter had ordered them to move.

On the 21st, of April, 1871 the speaker wrote to the superintendent in New York setting forth the difficulty of keeping the harbor clear. The letter was read. In it Mr. Brayton states that the number of coasting and fishing vessels had so increased of late that at certain seasons of the year the harbor cannot be kept clear without the aid of a tug boat constantly under steam, and he had suggested the advisability of maintaining such a boat. Mr. Pearce had stated that he had nothing to do with that part of the harbor used by the Narragansett steamers. It was just this neglect that was complained of.

It was with great difficulty that the speaker and certain others had prevailed on the managers to have their repairing done in this city instead of New York. They had succeeded, and last winter, work was done on the Newport to the amount of $125,000, besides what was done on the Bristol and Providence. During the winter the painters struck abruptly, without warning and without asking for anything. The company advertised in the Boston Herald for fifty men. A delegation of painters called on Mr. Pearce and at their instance he wrote a request to the Boston painters not to answer the company's advertisement, as the painters here had only struck for their rights. This he sent to the Boston Herald with the request that it be put under the company's advertisment, but this was refused. The managers thought that this was very hostile on Mr. Pearce's part, as he went out of his way to show his ill will. Mr. Bacon's charge is that there is no co-operation between the harbor master and his deputy. The latter was not to relieve the former, but to co-operate with and be subject to him.

Mr. Lake appeared for Mr. Pierce as counsel. Mr. Brayton objected to this. He did not understand that this was a formal trial, but merely a hearing of the statements on both sides. He was not prepared either with counsel or witnesses for a formal trial. He objected to having Mr. Pearce sworn.

THE HARBOR MASTER'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Pearce said he was elected harbor master in January 1864, and took the office without any instructions. The whole emolument of the office was one half the fees. For that he was to do the whole duty of keeping the harbor clear, and this he did to the full extent of his abilities. At certain seasons the harbor was so full that it was impossible to find a place for another vessel. At such times it was customary for the agent of the company to telegraph the fact to New York, and the captains were instructed to come around by the west side of Goat Island. Everything worked harmoniously between the company's officials, and the harbor master.

This went on for two or three years. Finally it was found that the collection of taxes was illegal. They were therefore given up, and for one or two years he served without any recompensation at all. When he made the arrangement with the Steamship Company he stipulated that he as not to be obliged to go out in rough weather or in the night.

In November 1869 he came down from Providence on the City of Newport. He asked the pilot, as they came near the city, what he thought of the passage through the harbor. The pilot said it was very good. It was rough weather and there were at least 150 sail in the harbor. The speaker asked the pilot if he would go out and try to move any of those vessels, and the pilot said he would not. The next morning the speaker found that the Bristol lay at the south end of Goat Island, and a vessel was lying directly in the channel. She had come in during the night. There was plenty of room to the north, but the captain of the steamer instead of going that way, steered for a dark place in the harbor, which unfortunately turned out to be a vessel with no light on. In trying to avoid her the steamer fouled another vessel and took her jibboon out.

After this the company stopped his pay, and for some time he had no pay from any source, and he did not feel as much interest in keeping the harbor clear as he did before. While Capt. Pitman was deputy there was no difference at all between them. Pitman had his own way about everything.

Two years ago a vessel came in in distress and anchored near the breakwater. There was no vessel near, and the speaker told the pilot he might remain where he was, though the deputy had told him to move. For two years he had not interferred in a single instance, and for a year and a half, or two years, Mr. Brayton had not made a word of complaint.

As to the affair of the painters, Mr. Brayton had been grossly misinformed. M. M Clark and others came to the speaker with an advertisement which they wished put in to the Providence Press, Boston Herald, and Fall River News. He had the advertisment inserted merely as an accommodation. He did not know anything about the proposition to place it under the company's advertisement till afterwards.

The speaker had never through malice or spite done one single act against the Narragansett Steamship Company. He had always acted according to the dictates of his own judgement.

The deputy located at Long Wharf has a much better view of the harbor than has the speaker. The latter has work enough to do to earn his $150 a year without doing the deputy's work. When he had attended to the boats of the American Steamboat Company, and the Wickford and Florence lines he felt that he had done his duty. In two or three instances when Mr. King was new to the business the speaker had countermanded his orders, but since that he had been perfectly satisfied with him, and had let him entirely alone. Last week he had moved a vessel, but it was with the deputy's knowledge. His policy had been lenient, and he had not made vessels move when it was unnecessary.

FARTHER DISCUSSION.

Mr. Brayton did not consider it fair that the harbor master should devote all his time to the other lines, and entirely neglect the Narragansett Company.

Mr. Pearce said that company kept a special deputy, and he had relied on him.

Mr. Brayton complained that Mr. Pearce had written articles to the Providence Press, of such a character that it was deemed necessary to keep them out of Mr. Jay Gould's sight. These letters were to the effect that the latter's persecution of the harbor master was intended to influence the decision of Judge Blatchford in the Bessie Rogers case.

Mr. Pearce replied that an article libelous to him had been published in the New York Times. Through the medium of the Associated Press it had been scattered broadcast through the land. He had abundant reason to believe that this letter originated in the office of the Narraganset Company, and he had merely defended himself.

The committee then adjourned till Thursday evening at eight o'clock.

Manifest Absurdities.

Is there any good reason why the dictates of common sense should be disregarded in medical practice? Surely not. Yet how literally they are sometimes set at naught in the treatment of dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration and general debility. How often are powerful purgatives, emetics and salivants given in cases of indigestion, bilious colic and costiveness, when the disease has already robbed the patient of strength he needs to combat with the attack. The absurdity of giving debilitating medicines to sick people who are too weak already, is so manifest, that it is astonishing how any sane man can believe in such practice. The rational course under such circumstances is to administer a tonic and regulating medicine, and the experience of a quarter of a century has proved that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most wholesome and efficient preparation of this class to be found in the medical repository. It is, however, something more than an invigorant and a regulator. Its properties as an aperient and anti-billious agent; its vitalizing and purifying effect upon the blood; its utility when given as an anodyne, instead of laudanum, or chloral, or digitalis, or some other stupifying narcotic; its tranquilizing tendency in spasmodic affections, and its palatability, as contrasted with the sickening pills and potions of the pharmacopoeia, certainly entitle Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to be called the most comprehensive remedy in existence.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC,
SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Sometimes medicines that will stop a cough will often occasion the death of the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood; hemorrhage follows, and in fact, clogging the action of the urinary organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with a dull pain in the side, the bowels sometimes costive and sometimes too loose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling sometimes very restless, and other times drowsy; the food that is taken lies heavily on the stomach, accompanied by acidity and belching of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly stopped, the lungs, liver and stomach clog, and remain torpid and inactive, and before the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juice of the stomach, digests easily, nourishes the system, and creates a healthy circulation of the blood. When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, and the patient is of a billious habit, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, Penn., and for sale by GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover street, Boston, and John F. Henry, 8 College place, New York, Wholesale Agents.

Conanicut Park.

PERSONS desiring Cottage Lots at this new watering place, will do well to call on the agent at as early a day as possible. In view of the improvements in progress, prices will very soon be advanced. Those who are asking themselves as to the probabilities of realizing a profit on a real estate investment at this point, should consider the following facts:

The company owning the property is made up of men of enterprise, who will expend all the money that is necessary to make the Park one of the most attractive places in the country. They are already building one of the largest and most substantial wharves in the bay, and it will be ready in a few weeks, when all the Providence and Newport steamers will make a landing. The hotel will be in readiness for guests on or before the first of July. Eight or ten cottages will be erected in time for occupancy the present season. Several miles of streets are already made, and a large number of workmen are engaged in building others. The engineers have laid out the property in good taste, dividing the land into Parks and drives, one of the main avenues extending along the shore more than three miles, making one of the finest drives in the country. The lots on Summit and other avenues have a view of the opposite shores, from Narragansett Pier to Wickford, Greenwich, Rocky Point, Bristol, Portsmouth and Newport, affording a prospect of some fifty miles extent along the water's edge, and enabling the spectator to look into eleven different townships without changing his position. These and other advantages afford a guaranty of the success of the enterprise especially as the first purchasers buy at so small a price. Lots have already been sold to parties in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Providence, Taunton, Bridgewater, &c.

The plat may be seen at the office of the undersigned at No. 13 Church Street.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1873.

GENERAL NEWS,
FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—The Secretary of the Navy said today that from all he could learn the Polaris would probably be able to reach some extreme northern port; but if after allowing a reasonable time she should not do so, a vessel will be despatched in that direction, with the object of relief or of obtaining information. The department will do all in its power for the safe transit to the United States, and the comfort of the survivors whose names have just been published.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Bellevue Hospital steamer Hope was run into and sunk at Hell Gate this afternoon, by a Norfolk steamer, during a violent thunder storm. No blame attaches to the pilot of the latter vessel. It was impossible to see the Hope until it was too late to avoid a collision. Six men were on board the Hope. Four of the number were drowned.

Stokes has not been resentenced, and his counsel says that the question whether he will be resentenced before the case goes to the court of appeals is yet unsettled. The indictment against George Francis Train is to stand and an early day will be fixed for his trial. The counsel for the sailors' boarding house keepers stated in court today that if the charges were withdrawn he would advise them to take out licenses.

Horseshoers from Massachusetts went to work today for Avenue C. Railroad Company at three dollars a day and board. The police protect them against anticipated difficulty from strikers. The hat and cap makers here-abouts are organizing for an effort to secure better wages than five and six dollars a week of sixteen hours a day. The journeyman tailors in the wholesale manufacturing branch of the trade, who made from eight to ten dollars a week, working sixteen hours a day, are reorganizing with the hope of improving their condition. The strike of the Brooklyn Gas Company's employes is a total failure. The company has secured a complete new set of men in place of the strikers.

The boss horse-shoers of Brooklyn met this morning and resolved to accede to the demands of the men on a strike, reserving, however, the right to employ any workmen they chose. The men on a strike refused to return to work unless all the hands were taken back. The employers separated without deciding on this point.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BOSTON, May 14.—A meeting of the "National Anti-Monopoly Cheap Freight Railway League," was held at the Boston Commercial Exchange yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, the Hon. Josiah Quincy in the chair, and Herbert Radclyffe secretary.

THE STRIKES.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 13.—Most of the cotton mills in Woonsocket started up this morning with more or less of their former operatives, affording those who wished to work an opportunity to do so.

ANOTHER DISASTER.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 12.—The community was startled tonight with the intelligence that a terrible explosion had occurred in the Drummond colliery, Pictou county, at one o'clock today. Manager Dunn, Assistant Manager Richardson and forty of the workmen were in the pit when the explosion took place. The greatest excitement prevailed above ground after the fearful occurrence, and crowds of people for miles around came rushing to the scene of the disaster. Then occurred one of those heart-rending scenes which is described by an eye-witness as something harrowing, beyond all conception, the recollection of which will never fade from the memory. Mothers, wives, sisters, children and friends crowded around the burning pit, mourning pitifully the terrible fate of those below, their heart-rending cries being heard for a long distance. Every effort has been and is being made to rescue the men, but so far without success, and it is feared they have all perished. The fire up to this time (9 P. M.), is still raging, although every endeavor is being made to put it out. Assistance from Pictou and New Glasgow, where great excitement prevails, is at hand, and strenuous exertions are making to subdue the conflagration. This city is also much excited over the terrible news of the calamity.

THE ARMY REUNION.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., May 13.—The events of today have been on the whole rather disappointing. The Cavalry Corps Association did not muster members enough to do business, and adjourned over until tomorrow, when with the arrival of Sheridan it is hoped a respectable representation of this branch of the service will be in attendance. The ninth corps reunion was much more successful, though in point of numbers not comparable with the gatherings of previous years. One of the corps commanders (Burnside), two division commanders (Potter and Hartranft), and several brigade commanders were present. General Griffin of New Hampshire was expected but did not appear.

The ninth army corps elected the officers of last year, except that General R. B. Potter of New York was substituted as vice president for General Hartranft. The Rev. W. A. Woodbury of Providence delivered an eloquent oration. In the evening the banquet was held. After due attention had been paid to the refreshments, General Burnside said that in the lack of a person more suitable, he would act as toastmaster, and proceeded with the regular toasts. "The President of the United States" was responded to by Mayor McCafferty of Worcester. The next toast, "The Union," was responded to by General Van Zandt. "The City of New Haven" was responded to by Mayor Lewis; "Yale College," by President Porter; "The regular army of the United States" by General Gibben and Charles Devens; "The ninth army corps" by Governor Hartranft; "The army of the Potomac" by General Sharp of New York; "The orator of the day" by the Rev. Mr. Woodbury; "Our deceased comrades" by Chaplain Ball; and the last toast of the evening, "Grand Army of the Republic," by Colonel Metcalf.

LOUISANA.

NEW IBERIA, LA., May 13.—A squad of mounted metropolitans arrived here at noon by land, from St. Martinsville, to await the boat. The transport Ozart arrived at five o'clock with Badger's force and took on the cavalry and a piece of artillery and proceeded to Brashear, on the way to New Orleans. Colonel DeBlanc and several of his friends have surrendered and are now on parole until Friday, when they leave for New Orleans. The names of the eleven for whom the marshal has warrants are not ascertained. Quiet reigns in St. Martinsville.

William M. Tweed, whose case was called up for re-trial Monday, did not appear and is not in the city. It is rumored he has recently, through agents, been selling his real estate in the city and been advised by counsel not to return to New York.

Albert H. Nicolay, a Wall street stock broker, was arrested on Monday, charged by William S. Roberts with having defrauded him (Roberts) of $29,000, by purchasing for him worthless stocks. Nicolay was held in default of $25,000.

A special dispatch to the London Times reports that a Russian picket party, under command of a colonel, in the advance guard of Gen. Kauffman's column, were suprised by some Bokhara horsemen and all put to death by impalement. Three officers and a few men were captured by Kirghese between Orsk and Kasalinsk.

The American Dramatic Fund Association held their twenty-fifth annual meeting in New York on Monday. The receipts last year were $4,917; expenditures, $4,805. S. L. M. Barlow was re-elected president.

At a preliminary meeting of prominent gentlemen in New York called to consider the expediency of forming a society for the rescue and resuscitation of the suffocated and drowned, a committee was appointed to draft a constitution and effect a permanent organization.

Stokes will probably be brought before the general term of the Supreme Court tomorrow, for re-sentence.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1873.

The Hartford Courant, speaking of "Mart" Allen's being pardoned out of prison some years ago in Connecticut, says that the pardon was thus manœuvered by Mart's brother. When the resolution for the action was brought up in the General Assembly it was feared that it would not pass. It was Summer, and the members of the House often went out to drink at the water tanks. The men most likely to oppose the measure sat at one side of the room, and those likely to favor it at the other. The prisoner's brother put a powerful emetic in the water of which his enemies would drink, and soon many were forced to leave the room for a season, which proved long enough to secure the passage of the resolution which set "Mart" at liberty.

The floor of another room at Trenton, N. J., gave way Saturday evening and fifty persons were precipitated to the cellar. All were scratched and bruised, but none seriously injured.

Have you a Dyspeptic Stomach? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with poverty of the Blood, Dropsical tendency, general Weakness and Inertia.

Have you weakness of the Intestines? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhœa or Inflammation of the Bowels.

Have you weakness of the Uterine or Urinary Organs? You are exposed to suffering in its most aggravated form.

Are you dejected, drowsy, dull, sluggish or depressed in spirits, with head ache, back ache, coated tongue and bad tasting mouth?

For a certain remedy for all of these diseases, weaknesses and troubles; for cleansing and purifying the vitiated blood and imparting vigor to all the vital forces; for building up and restoring the weakened constitution USE

THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD

In the wonderful medicine to which the afflicted are above pointed for relief, the discoverer believes he has combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick, than were ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful purifying and invigorating medicine.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise.

The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it for the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended.

Sold by druggists at $1 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Sole Proprietor, at his Chemical Laboratory, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y. Send your address for a pamphlet.

New York Patent Carpet Renovating Co.

ARE now ready to receive orders at their office, Carpets cleaned and restored to their original beauty and brightness, without removing the same from the floor

CERTAIN AND INFALLIBLE.

The process by which this extraordinary result is obtained is one of the most important revolutions in

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

However soiled your Brussels, Velvets, Wilton, Axminster, Moquet, Aubusson, and other carpets or Rugs may be; be they covered with Dust, Dirt, Grease, or Coal Smoke, with this process, the same can be made clean and bright and apparently as new as when delivered from the hands of the manufacturer.

THIS GREAT DESIDERATUM

is obtained without removing the carpet from the floor, or requiring the removal of furniture from the room, a convenience which every Housekeeper will appreciate. The old system of Carpet beating and shaking will free carpet of loose dirt only, the dirt which has hardened the wool and defaced the colors as well as grease stains and coal smoke will not be removed

WE CAN POSITIVELY STATE,

No matter how old and soiled a carpet may be as long as the nap is not injured, the same can be restored to its original beauty.

Circulars and references of the many who have tested our process, can be had at the office No. 138 Thames Street, Newport.
